Director of the Year

Nominate a Colleague You Admire!

The Director of the Year award recognizes school nutrition directors for the contributions they have made throughout their school nutrition career.

Who can be nominated?

The nominee must be:

- Currently and for the past five years a School Nutrition Director at the school district level
- Currently and for the past five years a SNA member in the District Director or Major City Director sections
- Currently holds a SNA certificate in school nutrition or the SNS credential
- The nominee must also have:
  - Served in at least one position on the state or national executive board OR as a member on a state or national committee

Are there any restrictions?

The nominee cannot be:

- A current state or national SNA president
- A current SNA national Board of Directors member
- A current member of an SNA national standing or strategic committee
- A current SNA member in the Employee or Manager category
• Hold a title or job responsibilities that do not confirm the nominee’s status as school nutrition director
• A previous national winner of the Outstanding Director of the Year award or Director of the Year award

Self-nominations are not accepted. Nominations must be typed, and answers must not exceed the listed word counts. SNA will not accept nominations from current members of the SNA national Board of Directors or of SNA national standing or strategic committees.

How do I submit a nomination?

Nominations for the 2017-18 Director of the Year Award are due online or directly to the State President by March 1, 2018.* Submit the online nomination via this link. You may also use this word document to prepare your online nomination or submit it directly to the State President.
